This is our living room. It is light and clean. In the evening, we are all there. The table is in front of the window. There are four chairs near the table. We can play board games there. The sofa is near the wall to the left. The new big TV is near the wall on the right. We like to sit on the sofa and watch cartoons on TV. Daddy often sits in the armchair on the left of the sofa and reads a book. My little brother Sam likes to play under the table. His toys are everywhere.

Hello, it is December and it is Christmas time now. We have a nice Christmas tree at home. We do not go to school at Christmas. We walk, play and sing Christmas carols. My granny and granddad come to our home at Christmas. My aunt Lizzy and her husband, my uncle Sid, usually come to us too. My cousins, Bobby and Linda, come with them. We have a good time together. We always have a nice big dinner at Christmas. We like to have Christmas presents too! They are under the Christmas tree for everybody. But we never open them on Christmas Day. We do it the next morning. It's fun to open presents and see what you get. My parents say that only good children get Christmas presents. I guess, my brother and I are usually good: we always get presents at Christmas!

Yesterday was not a usual day. It was my friend's birthday. Usually I sleep till nine on Sunday but yesterday I asked my father to wake me up at eight. I dressed, washed, and had breakfast. After that, we went to the shop with my father to buy a present for Kate. We bought a book with nice pictures about animals in Africa and a board game. We bought some flowers for her mum too.

We came home at ten and my mother asked me to help her wash the dishes. After I did that, I helped my Dad in the garden.

Hooray, it was twelve already! I washed and went to my friend's house. Her parents decorated it with red and blue balloons. It was very nice. Kate liked my presents very much. Other children brought some presents for her too. She was very happy. We watched cartoons, played board games and had pizza and lemonade. We had a great fun!

Winter is a cold season in Ukraine. The weather is sometimes bad. It is snowy and windy. But other days are sunny and not so cold. We have holidays in January. They are New Year Day and Christmas. We do not go to school for the first ten days in January. If we have a lot of snow, we can play snowballs and make a snowman. It is a great fun.

But winter is over now. It is March. March is a spring month. It is not so cold. The sky is often blue and the sun is shining. It will be warm soon. I am going to take off my warm coat, hat and scarf. Hooray!

It is spring now. Spring is a very nice season. It is warm and sunny. The sky is blue and clean. All people are tired after a long cold winter. They are glad that they can take off warm winter coats and hats. They can walk in the park and see new green grass and first little flowers. The birds sing songs. They are happy too.

People usually clean their houses, gardens and yards. Children help their parents to do this. They do not like to stay at home in spring. They want to play hide-and-seek in the yard and walk in the park. They can ride their bikes too.

Sometimes the sky is grey. It is cloudy. Then it rains but not for long. It stops raining and the weather is good again. We can walk again too!
